

Cocktail Debate: the impact of Brexit on the transport sector

Wednesday, 22 November 2017

European Parliament, Brussels Members' Salon, ASP Floor 0

Draft Agenda

Since the result of UK's referendum on the membership of the European Union, the transport sector has faced a lot of uncertainty. The social, economic and political impacts of Brexit pose a real challenge to the stakeholders concerned about the future of mobility.

In light of the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union, MEP Bernd Lange and the Forum for Mobility & Society would like to invite you for a cocktail debate. In this networking event, stakeholders and policy-makers will discuss the impact of the negotiations on the transport sector.

Draft programme

18:00 – 18:30 – Parliament Accreditation

18:30 – 19:30 - Debate followed by brief discussion:

Introduction by MEP Bernd Lange

Pauline Bastidon, Head of European Policy at the UK's Freight Transport Association
Ralf Pastleitner, Director International Public Policy & EU Affairs – TUI Group
Sydney Nash, Senior Policy Manager at the UK's Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders

Closing remarks by MEP Jacqueline Foster (tbc)

19:30 – 20:30 - Networking Cocktail

Forum members:

BMW GROUP

BRIDGESTONE

GOODYEAR DUNLOP

HONDA
The Power of Dreams

JAMA
JAPAN AUTOMOBILE MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

As at 06/11/2017